DEFINITION OF MEMBERSHIP (CDKC BY-LAWS)

ARTICLE 1.

1. Any person who is in sympathy with the objects of the Society and loyal thereto shall be eligible for membership.

2. Prospective members shall complete an application form and submit it to any member of the Cranbrook & District Kennel Club Executive Committee. This/those form(s) shall be reviewed by the Executive Committee and brought forward at the next general monthly meeting for review and final decision by the members in favour of, or rejecting membership.

3. There shall be four classes of membership: Honourary, Life, Associate, Active and Friend of the CDKC. The Club may by resolution increase the classes of membership and specify the qualification therefore.

(i) An Honourary Member shall be one whom the club deems worthy of such recognition and whose name has been submitted to and approved by a majority vote of the Executive Committee and who has been accepted as such by a majority of members present at any regular meeting of the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club. Such member shall have all the privileges of the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club, except those of voting and holding office. Honourary members shall not be required to pay any membership dues. Such membership may be granted to a definite period or for life at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

(ii) A Life Member shall be one whom the club deems worthy of such recognition and whose name has been submitted to and approved by a majority vote of the Executive Committee and who has been accepted as such by a majority of members present at any regular meeting of the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club. Such member shall have all the privileges of the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club. Life members shall not be required to pay any membership dues.

(iii) An Active Member shall be a person, who has been an Associate Member for six (6) months, has paid the annual membership fee, and attended and participated in;

A minimum of four (4) functions per year for local members OR a minimum of two (2) functions per year for out-of-town members ("local" = within 30 km radius of Cranbrook) which includes general meetings, Club's annual events, helping with seminars, parade participation and hospitality functions etc. Active members shall have full voting privileges.

(iv) An Associate Member is a new member who has paid the membership fee and will be deemed to be an associate member for the first fiscal year that they join the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club. After six months (6), should the associate member demonstrate they are participating as an Active Member they will have full privileges of the Club. An associate member who does not demonstrate they are participating in Club events or activities will not have any voting privileges or be able to run for office and/or they will not be eligible for any Cranbrook and District Kennel Club activity discounts.

(v) A Friend of the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club Member shall be a person who wishes to belong to the Cranbrook and District Kennel Club but primarily as a supporter, and/or is a person who had paid the annual membership fee but does not meet the criteria of an Active Member. They shall receive Club-related communications as appropriate by electronic or other means. They shall not be entitled to voting privileges.

All Cranbrook and District Kennel Club members are encouraged to act as Cranbrook and District Kennel Club ambassadors both locally and at other events.

The attendance at social events will not be included towards meeting requirements of any class of membership.

4. Qualification for membership shall be limited to persons interested in furthering the objects set forth in the Club's Constitution, whose application has been approved by the general membership, who have paid the prescribed fees and who undertake to abide by the Constitution and By-laws of the Club.

5. Annual dues shall be decided at the Annual General Meeting. The membership year shall be the fiscal year, which is from the date of the AGM, to the day before the AGM the following year. Dues are payable at the time of the Annual General Meeting.

6. A member shall be deemed to be in good standing when they have paid their current annual membership fee and will abide by the Constitution and By-laws of the Club.
